

LEADING FROM THE MIDDLE:

The Orthodox Pastor must master directing every person to the Way of the Lord: "Deny thyself, take up thy cross, and follow me." He must know himself well, and must sharpen his diagnostic tools in order to lead, neither by pushing, nor by pulling.

These three days at St Tikhon's Seminary will equip, or re-equip, those entrusted with the care of souls, with practical skills to lead their flocks from the middle, in dispassionate, yet compassionate ways.
